

WEST SCRANTON

NIGHT SCHOOLS ARE NOW OPEN

ATTENDANCE INCREASING AT EACH SESSION.

Competent Teachers in Charge of the Work at Nos. 13, 16, 17, 18, 31 and 32 Buildings—Observance of Thanksgiving Day Generally Expected—C. T. A. U. Societies Arranging for an Encampment—Republican Club Meeting and Other Events This Evening—Future Happenings—Notes and Personals.

Public night schools have been opened in a number of the city school buildings, and a large number of factory hands, breaker boys and mine workers are availing themselves of the opportunity to obtain education in the common English branches.

The enrollment thus far has been very good, but there is still room for many more who may desire to attend.

At No. 13 school the work is in charge of J. H. Oliver and Miss Elizabeth Williams. In the No. 16 building, on Chestnut street, Thomas Murphy, Jr., is in charge.

Miss Mary Durkin has charge of the work at No. 17, in the Kreyer Valley section, and Wallace G. Moses and Miss Tom Evans are teaching at No. 18, building, corner of Sweetland street and Summit avenue.

At No. 21 Jackson street and Van Buren avenue, there are four teachers, as this is a three-kyphosplastic district. The instructors are: H. L. Morgan, W. H. Williams, J. T. Davis and E. E. Hughes.

Two teachers are in charge of the work at No. 32 building, on South Main avenue, John Thomas and Miss Kate O'Neill.

Thanksgiving Observance.

From present indications, Thanksgiving will be generally observed throughout West Scranton. At a meeting of the officers of the Tabernacle Congregational church, a resolution was adopted, uniting the local coal and other companies to make arrangements obviating the necessity of their employees working on that day.

The officials of the church give us a reason for the resolution that on many occasions the mines have been working on Thanksgiving Day and would be idle for two or three days of the same week. They regard this as un-American, but, believing that it was

A Daily Reminder

You will not be disappointed in Duton's Tar; it will relieve that Cough and Cold in one night.

FOR SALE BY G. W. JENKINS.

Semi-Annual Sale of Lace Curtains At Far Below Value Prices.

Before the year is out, the new styles for 1901 will be coming to hand. From present indications it does not appear as though there would be any radical changes or innovations of a startling nature in the new goods. In fact, we are safe in saying that not one woman in fifty will be able when next April comes to tell the difference between curtains designed for this year and curtains designed for next year.

We know the difference, however—it's our business to know—and that fact is enough for us. It explains why we have cut the prices heavily on all 1901 patterns now in stock, in order to make room for the 1902 patterns that are to come.

It is impossible to enter into details with such a sale as this, consequently the figures which follow can only be considered as price hints—little pointers as to the scope of the reductions in general.

Read this advertisement in that light, and you've got the gist of the whole matter, and the advantages you may hope to reap from this sale.
